

Restoration of the 1918 Carnegie Library

A Joint Project of the City of Port Angeles and the Clallam County Historical Society

Reopened as a Museum on October 30, 2004

Dedicated to the citizens who struggled to get a Carnegie Library built in Port Angeles, and to those who helped give it new life as a showcase for Clallam County history and culture

This Undertaking Would Not Have Succeeded Without Support From

Ben and Myrtle Walkling Memorial Trust Clallam County • Port Angeles School District
North Olympic Library System • Lower Elwha Klallam Tribe
State of Washington • Congress of the United States
First Federal Savings & Loan